As of March 31, 2011, ETHB reached a headcount of over 14,000, having trained and equipped 10,000 for the year's harvest. Revenues and profits surged as the company continued to ramp up its greenfields against a backdrop of a strong pricing environment for sugar and ethanol. The two remaining greenfields under construction are expected to begin operations ahead of the 2012 harvest year.

Sector Real Estate

Business Description & Rationale

High end commercial and high & mid-market residential development in Manila.
The company focuses on acquiring and developing prime but undeveloped sites into Class A office and residential locations. The company has two main areas of focus: Metro Manila for office and residential development and resort & second home developments on islands near Manila (both of which feed into the same middle-to-high income bracket customer segments). Limited supply of Class A residential and commercial space in Metro Manila and growing Philippine income driving that demand.

Recent Events

Marketing activities have begun on the Makati Place and the Balesin Island Resort. No other major events to report

Name ECI Telecom
Holding 4.85%
Website www.ecitele.com
Sector Telecommunications

Business Description & Rationale

ECI Telecom is a leading supplier of broadband networking infrastructure equipment for telcos.
Services include broadband access, transport and data networking infrastructure platforms for optical and digital telecommunications networks. Before being acquired by Ashmore funds/accounts, ECI operated through two divisions: the Broadband Access Division and the Transport Networking Division. Its customer base includes a number of leading telecom providers in emerging markets. Valuations in the telecommunications equipment sector are principally driven by revenue growth and profitability, as well as by sustained technological innovation. ECI's transport and networking infrastructure products are mainly sold to very high growth companies in emerging markets; its broadband access products are increasingly selling into these same markets.

Recent Events

Following the fall-off in telecoms procurement between 2008-10 ECI is on course to deliver sales growth of over 20% this year, and break-even EBITDA in all quarters. BT Open Reach will be over 10% of 2011 sales. The development of ECI's new Apollo product line (combined IP/optical Transport platform for metro deployment) is due to be complete by the end of the year, with Apollo sales expected mid next year. Several new contracts are being pursued, although on the whole these, if won, will leverage off the R&D programs of recent years

Market Review

The November NAV for AGOL increased marginally despite a fall in global asset prices. The month did end positively however, following coordinated central bank intervention to provide liquidity in G10 markets. October's rally was essentially driven by the EU's proposal to fix the Eurozone debt crisis. However, that optimism receded in November as investors soon realised that the proposal provided very little detail on how the EFSF would be expanded, and that the package of measures may ultimately prove to be inadequate. Papandreu and Berlusconi were replaced by unelected technocrats in Greece and Italy respectively while yields in all Eurozone countries began to rise culminating in poor bond sales in Spain, France and surprisingly Germany. The major ratings agencies also downgraded Portugal and Belgium and said that France's AAA rating was vulnerable. The US debt super committee failed to agree on ways to cut fiscal spending, which now increases the downside risks to US growth because it increases the chances that payroll tax and unemployment benefit will not be extended. Towards the end of the month, markets rallied strongly in relief at the coordinated central bank intervention to provide liquidity. Whilst this doesn't change anything fundamentally, it does provide the EU with a bit of breathing space.

Performance Summary

The special situations investments were the main drivers of performance in AGOL in November, while liquid EM assets sold off in line with developed world markets. November was again driven by external factors in Italy, Spain and the Euro. Corporate bonds, both US Dollar denominated and those in local currencies fell in to negative territory. China, Brazil and Mexico were the main detractors from performance. China's main factors look to have been continued concerns over the real estate sector and a slowdown in the economy. Local currency bond investments in Brazil should remain particularly attractive over the next few quarters as the COPOM pursues a looser monetary policy in the face of slowing domestic and global growth. Issuance continued to rise overall in October (while down on 2010 again). The domestic low growth environment, driven mainly by slow demand out of the US, is positive for Mexican rates and the currency. Inflation continues to not be a concern. Barring a global economic collapse that could lead to more drastic measures, which is not our base case, we are positive on the currency and believe the bonds should provide attractive returns over the medium term. The theme of volatility generally arising from external factors remains intact. Most market players are looking towards year-end to put a close to matters and will remain reluctant to trade.

Special Situations

Overall, Special Situations were a positive contributor over the month. The largest contributor to performance was EMTEK following a significant rise in its listed share price. Bangkok Land's share price also rose significantly over the month, thus impacting AGOL positively. Another positive contributor was Star Energy in Indonesia, which received a higher valuation from the independent valuation agent on the back of positive news flow on Indonesia and the energy sector. During the month, Ashmore funds exited their position in Carnex, an agriculture / meat processing business based in Serbia for cash. Jasper Investments was one of the largest negatives performers following a fall in its share price.
